

Galindas Exports

Newly acquired as a Falleen Crown Corporation

Year 10 Day 190 - Galindas Exports is under new ownership and management. Inventory and production system restructuring are ongoing. During this period, no new contracts will be accepted. Thank you for your patience.

Galindas Exports, the center of the galaxy for all your item needs was conceived during the initial phase of the Tenloss Syndicate. Rumored to be a mass market fencing operation at the time, the faction strived through the years, promoting the necessity of the items it produced as they became a requirement for millions on a day to day basis.

Hit hard by the economic downturn during the galaxy shift that saw the darkness consume many systems in the universe, it was when Denevar came out in the center of this newly created galaxy that Tycho Celchu took full control of the advantage he had been given. Claiming the whole of the Hallu sector for Tenloss control, he built up a special home for Galindas Exports. Nestled in the Trade 2 station, Kinar Outpost, Galindas shares its space with Vyzerod Mining and the famous Afterburners bar.

Finally, happy with the stability it had obtained, Tycho Celchu released the production market of Galindas to the public for the first time since the galaxy shift, declaring the station and Galindas open for business on Day 292 of the 6th year.
